Personal Loan Guide - Training Sample

TRAINING SAMPLE - fictional information, not bank policy

Important notice

This is a fictional training example and does not state a real bank product, interest rate, or eligibility decision.

Overview

A personal loan is an unsecured loan that may be used for personal expenses. The borrower repays principal and interest according to the agreement.

Typical information requested

An application may request identity and address proof, income information, bank statements, and employment or business details. The lender may review credit history and repayment capacity.

Tenure and charges

Available loan amounts, repayment tenure, interest rate, fees, and eligibility vary by lender and applicant. Read the lender offer and loan agreement before accepting.
